Wanted to Marry Mother-in-Law

A couple from Golconda, Ill., came here last Monday and applied for marriage license but County Clerk Bingham could not grant them because the bride was the mother-in-law of the groom.—Morganfield Sun.

Ten Inning Game.

The Hopkinsville High School nine was defeated by the Clarksville High School team at Clarksville Saturday.
It was a ten-inning game and the score was 5 to 4.

Reconciled.

A calm, dispassionate young man married a lively, emotional girl. Soon after the honeymoon had flitted away they set about to remake each other.
Their efforts meeting with indifferent success, the young husband grew cynical and his wife grew very morose.
For months they had a miserable existence in the vale of sarcasm and tears. Finally, however, they gave up all hope of leveling their divergent personalities and lived happily unto a ripe old age. Domestic happiness consists in working out your own salvation.—A. E. Supp.

Easy to Radiate Happiness.

It is astonishing how much one without money may give—a kind word, a helping hand—the warm sympathy that rejoices with those who rejoice and weeps with those who weep. No man is so poor, no woman is so poor, as not to be able to contribute largely to the happiness of those around them.—Anon.

P. A. puts new joy into the sport of smoking!

YOU may live to be 110 and never feel old enough to vote, but it's certain-sure you'll not know the joy and contentment of a friendly old jimmy pipe or a hand rolled cigarette unless you get on talking-terms with Prince Albert tobacco!

P. A. comes to you with a real reason for all the goodness and satisfaction it offers. It is made by a patented process that removes bite and parch!
You can smoke it long and hard without a comeback! Prince Albert has always been sold without coupons or premiums. We prefer to give quality!

Prince Albert affords the keenest pipe and cigarette enjoyment! And that flavor and fragrance and coolness is as good as that sounds. P. A. just answers the universal demand for tobacco without bite, parch or kick-back!

Introduction to Prince Albert isn't any harder than to walk into the nearest place that sells tobacco and ask for "a supply of P. A." You pay out a little change, to be sure, but it's the cheer-fullest investment you ever made!
